2017 HIGHLIGHTS

- Brought down Cardinals QB Carson Palmer at Arz. (10/1), notching the first sack of his career.
- Registered a career-high 9 tackles at Was. (10/15), while also notching his second-career sack, bringing down Redskins QB Kirk Cousins.

GOLDMINE

- NFL players once again had the chance to share the causes that are important to them during all Week 13 games, as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. Thomas is supporting 10 Books A Home for his My Cause, My Cleats initiative. Thomas' mom was a teacher and his family instilled the importance of having an education. 10 Book A Home is an early childhood education nonprofit whose mission is to send all high poverty preschoolers to kindergarten prepared to perform above grade level. "Knowledge is power, an through constantly learning and growing, an education can bring you to places you never thought you could go," said Thomas.

- Thomas comes from an athletic family. His father, Chris, and mother, Martha, each attended the College of Wooster (OH) where Chris played basketball and Martha ran track. Solomon's uncle, Jon Thomas, ran track at Indiana University where he was a four-time Big Ten 400m hurdles champion.

THOMAS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Born in Chicago, IL, Thomas moved and spent part of his childhood living in Australia. His father, Chris, was an international sales manager for Proctor & Gamble and he was stationed there. Thomas grew up learning to surf and enjoyed playing on the beach and eating fish and chips. He didn't begin playing football until he moved to Coppell, TX.
- One of Thomas' two career touchdowns at Stanford came at Levi's Stadium, returning a fumble recovery 34 yards for the score in the Cardinal's 41-22 victory over USC in the 2015 Pac-12 Championship Game.
- As a junior at Stanford, Thomas earned the Morris Trophy, a prestigious honor voted on by opposing Pac-12 offensive linemen. He joins 49ers teammates DL DeForest Buckner and G Joshua Garnett as Morris Trophy winners on the roster.

• Thomas spent part of his life living in Australia. Says Solomon, “My dad was an international sales manager for Proctor & Gamble, and they had him out there. It was an amazing experience to be there from two to seven or eight. It definitely gave me a different perspective on life and definitely shaped me for life.” Thomas’ family moved back to the United States and spent a few years living in Connecticut. It wasn’t until his family prepared to move to Texas that Thomas was introduced to football, when his parents had him watch ‘Friday Night Lights.’

• During his childhood, Thomas grew up speaking with a thick Australian accent. When he moved back to the States, no one in school could understand him, so he took three years of speech therapy classes to remove the accent. However, if it was up to Thomas, he would have kept the accent. Said Thomas, “It’s unfortunate, because I’d love to still have my Australian accent.”

• In October of 2017, the 49ers partnered with Bags of Fun to deliver backpacks to children undergoing treatment at Lucile Packard Children’s Hospital. Each bag was personalized with educational, interactive and fun toys to provide joy, laughter and relief from the stress and anxiety of being in the hospital. Thomas and his teammates spent time with patients receiving Bags of Fun and other families in the hospital to uplift them during a difficult time.

• In honor of the NFL’s Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi’s®. Thomas, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.
